Click on Articles and Databases in the center of the page
Look at alphabetical list in the lower right, click on a letter to get a database. The MLA Bibliography is important for German Studies, Eric is the database for articles in the field of education. You can browse the list as well.
If you get to this page, click on „Advanced Search” above the white search field.
This is the page you should be on to do your search. Type in your search term and press search.